

This note is sent in opposition to the Consumer Banker's Association effort to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. Please give all due consideration to the privacy rights of individuals to be free from being bothered by the CBA members under their claim of "established relationship".